Hauck Hearing Centre

FACTS:

- Hauck Hearing Centre has been open in Camrose since 2005. We've been here the longest.

We are not bound by a head office in another part of the world making our decisions for us.
- Hauck Hearing Centre is a family owned and operated business. Claire Milligan is a second-generation Board Certified in Hearing Instrument Sciences, Registered Hearing Aid Practitioner. Claire has lived in Camrose since 2002. Presently, she is training her teenage daughter in this field.

Morning Giggle

A fellow who's just reached his 110th birthday was giving a press conference to the assembled media.

"Excuse me, sir," one of the reporters said, "but how did you come to live to 110?"

"It's actually quite simple," the old feller replied. "I just never argue."

"That's impossible," the reporter responded. "There must be something else, like diet, or meditation, or something. Just not arguing won't keep you alive for 110 years!"

The old fellow stared hard at the reporter for several seconds.

"Hmmm," he finally shrugged, "maybe you're right."

This is, hands down, the easiest way to cook shrimp

Faith Durand, TheKitchn.com

Years ago, when I was just beginning to cook for myself, I felt intimidated by shrimp. Like other crustaceans from the deep, they seemed mysterious, expensive and exotic. But then I learned that shrimp are incredibly easy to cook.

One of my favorite walk-in-the-door meals is shrimp, roasted until hot and juicy, tossed over a bowl of pasta, on top of creamy polenta, or in a hearty kale salad. The beautiful thing about shrimp is that, even if you're starting from frozen, they don't take but a few minutes to cook. Here's how to cook shrimp quickly and easily in the oven — such a treat!

My favorite way to cook shrimp is in the oven; Just pop a tray in the oven while you set the table, and a few minutes later, that shrimp is ready to eat. Here's how to roast shrimp in the oven for easy weeknight meals.

Why you'll love it

Shrimp cooks quickly. Like scallops, shrimp are extremely convenient and quick-cooking. Roasting is the easiest method. Roasting shrimp in the oven is hands-off, foolproof, and great for cooking larger batches.

Should I use fresh or frozen shrimp?

Unless you live near the coast and have access to really fresh shrimp (lucky you!), the shrimp you buy will have been frozen at some point in time. It may already be thawed if you buy it out of the seafood case, but it's most frequently sold frozen.

How to thaw frozen shrimp

Thaw in the refrigerator. If you have time, take the shrimp out of the freezer and put it in the refrigerator the night before cooking to let it thaw.

Thaw under cold running water. You can quickly thaw frozen shrimp in about 5 minutes under cold running water in a colander.

What to serve with roasted shrimp

Like most other seafood, shrimp cooks very fast, and can be used to top pasta, rice, or grains for a quick dinner. Here are a few of our favorite ways to serve roasted shrimp.

Spaghetti Aglio e Olio

Southern-Style Grits

Garlic Noodles

THE MORNING BITE

Creamy Polenta
Brown Butter Za'atar Pasta
Mushroom Rice Pilaf
Asparagus Pasta with Lemon and Parmesan
5-Ingredient Spinach Risotto
Lemony Ricotta Pasta with Basil

Roasted Shrimp (Serves 4 to 6)

1 pound medium-sized (17-21 count) shrimp, peeled and deveined, tails on
Extra-virgin olive oil
Coarse kosher salt
Freshly ground black pepper

1. Heat the oven to 400 F with a rack placed in the middle of the oven.
2. Place the shrimp you want to cook in a colander in the sink and run cold water over them for about 5 minutes. Toss the shrimp occasionally to make sure they are all exposed to the cold water.
3. You will know that the shrimp is thawed and ready when they are no longer frozen solid but soft, easily bendable, and slightly translucent. This will only take a few minutes. Pat the shrimp dry with a paper towel.
4. Lightly drizzle the shrimp with olive oil.
5. Sprinkle generously with salt and freshly ground black pepper.
6. Toss lightly with your hands to ensure the shrimp is coated with oil and seasonings.
7. The shrimp should be in a single layer on a baking sheet. The shrimp should fit on the baking sheet in a single layer, with plenty of space between the shrimp.
8. Bake until the shrimp turns from blue-gray and translucent to white and pink and opaque. Remove and eat promptly.

Recipe note: Shrimp should be cooked immediately after thawing in cold water.
