Morning Giggle

The owner of a large factory decided to make a surprise visit and check up on his staff. Walking through the plant, he noticed a young man leaning lazily against a post.

"Just how much are you being paid a week?" said the owner angrily.

"Three hundred bucks," replied the young man.

Taking out a fold of bills from his wallet, the owner counted out $300, slapped the money into the boy's hands, and said, "Here's a week's pay — now get out and don't come back!"

Turning to one of the supervisors, he said "How long has that lazy bum been working here anyway?"

"He doesn't work here," said the supervisor. "He was just here to deliver a pizza!"

THE GIFT - The Words and Music of Ian Tyson Stops In Camrose

The Words & Music of Ian Tyson

Eighteen years ago a number of Ian Tyson's onetime sidemen, collaborators and musical admirers came together under the banner of The Gift. It was to be a solitary weekend paying tribute to the singer-songwriter and his massive songbook.

Since that weekend, which found the troupe selling out two shows at Sherwood Park's Festival Place and another at the Arden Theatre in St. Albert, The Gift continues to surface from time to time at festivals, concert halls and cowboy poetry festivals around Alberta and B.C.

Led by pianist and vocalist Stewart MacDougall, who has written, toured and recorded with Tyson, this critically acclaimed show has wowed audiences at the Jack Singer Concert Hall in Calgary, The Edmonton Folk Music Festival,

The Dauphin Country Fest, The Centrepointhe Theatre in Ottawa, The Big Valley Jamboree, and many other major venues, regional theatres and festivals.

The Gift line-up includes Tyson alumni Thom Moon on drums, Gordie Matthews on guitar, fiddle ace Myran Szott and Julian Kerr on bass. The core line-up also includes former One Horse Blue lead singer and guitarist Ian Oscar as well as vocalist Tracy Millar. The troupe is thrilled that folk-roots star John Wort Hannam has also been lending his talents to the show.

Collectively these musicians have worked on most of Tyson's recorded output since he first arrived back in Alberta from Toronto in the late seventies. The Gift rolls through 50 years of Tyson's catalogue, finding room for songs going back to the days of Ian and Sylvia and The Great Speckled Bird, through Ian's honky-tonk years, while making room for a large slice of the cowboy culture music that is heard on albums from Old Corrals and Sagebrush, Cowboyography, 18 Inches of Rain, I Outgrew The Saddle and Songs From The Gravel Road.

Tyson himself has praised the show and did the same for the 2008 companion album that featured members of this cast as well as guests like Gordon Lightfoot, Jennifer Warnes, Chris Hillman of the Desert Rose Band and Byrds fame, Corb Lund, The McDades, and Blue Rodeo.

If you are a fan of the music and career of Ian Tyson, The Gift is just that, a gift to those who understand what a force Tyson has been in country, folk and roots music for well over half a century.

Review:

"Every time I hear an Ian song a movie plays in my head. I call him poet, singer, cowboy historian and friend. This tribute is so well deserved and so well performed." – Pete Hicks

Grief shared is grief diminished. When we experience the loss of a loved one, it is important for family, friends and community to come together and support one another. When we deny ourselves the opportunity to experience the support of the community, we add to the burden of grief by causing ourselves to journey through the pain of loss alone.

Our funeral directors have over 85 years of combined experience providing funeral services. We pride ourselves in our exceptional level of service and attention to detail. Our funeral home offers a chapel and an on-site multipurpose reception centre, that can be used for any gathering. For more information, please contact our office.
