As of July 1, 2025, hardworking Albertans are keeping more money in their pockets on every paycheque thanks to our new personal income tax cut and the introduction of a new tax bracket. The new eight per cent tax bracket is now in effect, lowering the rate on the first $60,000 of income from 10 per cent. This means individual Albertans will save up to $750 this year, with two-income families saving as much as $1,500.

At a time when many are feeling stretched by the rising cost of living, the United Conservative tax cut provides real, meaningful relief.

We promised Albertans we would cut personal income taxes, and we delivered. This isn't a rebate or a one-time payment. This is permanent tax relief that puts more money in the hands of the people who earned it. You'll now have more freedom to spend, save, or invest however is best for your family.

Whether that extra money helps with groceries, sports, mortgages, rent, or saving for the future, one thing is clear: Albertans are better off when government takes less and trusts you to make the right decisions.

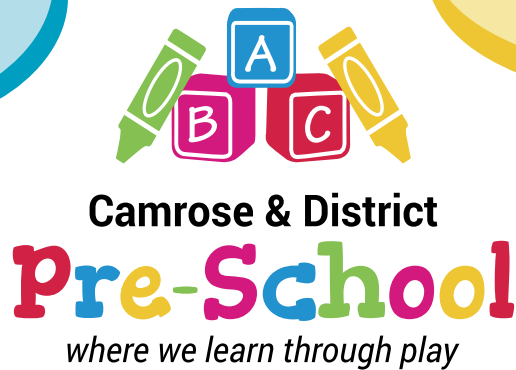

Albertans are proud to have some of the lowest taxes in Canada, with no PST, a low fuel tax, and competitive business taxes. With this new income tax cut, Alberta families and businesses will pay at least $20.1 billion less this year than they would under any other province's tax system.

United Conservatives are proud to deliver on our commitment to affordability while carefully managing our province's finances and creating jobs. This tax cut is just another example of how Alberta is leading the way in economic growth and in respecting the workers who make it possible. Alberta's government will keep standing up for Alberta families, our energy sector, and the values that define our province.

Lower taxes. More freedom. That's what we're delivering.

On another note, Alberta's $8.3-billion surplus sets a solid foundation for the uncertain times ahead. Alberta closed the 2024-25 fiscal year with its fourth consecutive surplus, totalling $8.3 billion. The increase is largely due to higher-than-expected resource revenues, corporate and personal income tax revenue and impressive investment income. In the face of rapidly changing economic conditions this year due to global trade challenges, the government will use the surplus to fortify Alberta's economic position, repay debt and save for the future.

My team and I have started my annual summer door knocking campaign and I look forward to speaking with as many of you as possible before returning to session this fall.

Morning Giggle

I was making Play-Doh animals with my four-year-old niece, Chris, and her three-year-old brother, Neil. While Chris was molding a crude but recognizable dog, figuring out what Neil was making proved to be a bit more challenging.

"It's a cat," he told me, "but a truck ran over it."

Sometime later, Chris had made another simple animal shape, but Neil had a rather flat slab of dough on the table in front of him.

"What happened to this one?" I asked.

Neil shrugged and said, "Same truck."

Your Horoscope

by Mecca Woods

ARIES (March 21 to April 19)

You may want to take everything on by yourself, but maybe you should ask for help.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20)

It's likely that you have way too much going on. Seek out balance.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20)

Try not to think too hard about the future or what comes next. Stay rooted in the present.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22)

Take some time to go inward and just be with yourself. It will enable you to find the comfort and clarity you need.

LEO (July 23 to Aug. 22)

Resist the urge to promise or take on more than what you can handle. Give yourself small, doable goals.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 to Sept. 22)

Don't settle or just take what you can get. You deserve more.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22)

Sometimes it's necessary to put your needs and yourself first -- like today.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21)

You may want to control every aspect of a situation. However, you'll be able to accomplish much more if you allow yourself to go with the flow.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21)

Be open to the feedback or suggestions of others. It could help make things easier for you.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 19)

If you want to get folks on board with what you're doing, lead by example and show them the way.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20 to Feb. 18)

Beware of ruminating on the past or thinking too negatively. Focus on what makes you feel hopeful.

PISCES (Feb. 19 to March 20)

Stepping outside your comfort zone may be the key to reaching your goals.

FOR TODAY'S BIRTHDAY

You're self-motivated and determined. You may often take on leadership roles because of your fortitude, can-do spirit, and ability to motivate and guide others. People are often happy to follow your lead because you're so charming and inspiring. You're loyal to your loved ones and protective of them, too. While you enjoy staying busy and having goals to work toward, you must take time to rest and appreciate the stillness. This year, as partnerships are spotlighted for you, get into the habit of letting folks show up for you.

IMAGINE. EXPERIENCE. CELEBRATE.

Powerhouse Vocals Incoming: AV & The Inner City Hits Camrose August 13!

“AV & the Inner City” is a soul/roots group that formed during the COVID19 pandemic and opioid crisis in the inner city of Edmonton, Canada.

The group is made up of 5 singers: band leader and multi award-winning singer-songwriter AV (Ann Vriend), Debbie Houle, co-founder of the Indigenous women’s group, Asani; Crystal Eyo, lead singer and songwriter of Edmonton pop/RnB band, Mercy Funk; ESL teacher Alenka Lundell, who fronted and wrote songs for bands in her home country of Czech (formerly Czechoslovakia); and Jenn Dahlen, a guitar player, singer and clarinetist.

From April 2020 until October 2021, on every Sunday that the pandemic restrictions and weather would allow AV hosted and performed nearly 60 free concerts on her front porch in the inner-city neighborhood of McCauley, often with guests, including the 6 above mentioned singers. The pandemic “porch concerts” were informal in nature but were a much-needed life-line of music and social interaction for both performers and audience members alike, especially during some of the most restrictive pandemic periods, and in a place where there is a high population of people already quite cut off from a lot of opportunities and acceptance from the rest of society.

In the early summer of 2021, as small, outdoor concerts were allowed AV asked the group of singers that had been singing so often alongside her if they would be interested in forming an actual official, rehearsed act; the repertoire of which are her own songs, with a cover song or 2 thrown in for good measure, and 3 part harmony soul/gospel style arrangements based around her voice and keyboard playing. All the singers responded with an emphatic “Yes!”, and thus “AV & the Inner City” was born.

Since then “AV & the Inner City” has performed at the Vancouver Island Music Festival, the Calgary Folk Music Festival, the Calgary International Blues Festival, the Edmonton Folk Music Festival where they received the Emerging Artist award; and, the Bear Creek Folk Festival.

In January 2024, the group recorded their debut single, Low and Lowly, and followed up that release with Music Always in May and Lion at the Gate in October. Their EP is due for release in early August of 2025.

In the meantime, the porch concerts are still well remembered and requested by many in the McCauley neighborhood and have served as a continual way of strengthening ties of cooperation and positive camaraderie, so “AV & the Inner City” have committed to continue to perform at least 1 per year, pandemic or not.

And if you happen to be in McCauley you might hear their music blaring from a neighbor’s speakers, or the singers practicing their harmonies in AV’s well-known yard or on the front porch.

AV & the Inner City will be performing Wednesday, August 13 outside on the Verda McNeill Plaza at the Jeanne & Peter Lougheed Performing Arts Centre.

THE MORNING BITE ENVIRONMENTAL NUTRITION

Can soft drinks, sports drinks and energy drinks fit into a healthy diet?

Heidi McIndoo, MS, RD

In looking for an alternative to sugar-laden sodas, many turn to sports drinks, energy drinks, and some of the newer “healthy” sodas. But are those beverages actually a better choice to wash down your lunch?

Traditional sports drinks were developed for a college football team practicing all day in the hot sun. They contain sugar, sodium, and more to replace what’s lost in sweat during intense workouts. If you’re not working out intensely for hours, consider these drinks glorified sodas. A 20-ounce bottle of Gatorade provides the equivalent of 8 1/2 teaspoons of added sugar, just shy of the 9 3/4 teaspoons in a 12-ounce can of soda. Most have sugar-free options that use artificial sweeteners or sugar alcohols, but excessive amounts of those may contribute to digestive distress. Many energy drinks pose the same concerns.

When it comes to prebiotic sodas and the like, most actually contain far less added sugar and have a bonus of fiber and beneficial prebiotics. These specialized sodas and flavored sparkling waters could be a tasty alternative if you’re looking for some bubbly sweetness in your drink.

Helpful hints: Keep some of these ideas in mind when choosing your next drink.

Can you drink just one? Some of these drinks provide two or more servings per bottle. If you down a full bottle in one sitting, be aware you may be getting more calories and sugar than you think.

Water it down. If you really want a sugar-sweetened drink, consider diluting it with water to cut sugar intake but still get some of that flavor.

Need a pick-me-up? Consider choosing a simple coffee and some fruit for healthy carbs and caffeine but not the potential 13-plus teaspoons of sugar from an energy drink.

Personalized Memorials

Your Story in Stone

A cemetery provides an important function in our society. It is a sacred ground that has been dedicated for the purpose of perpetually providing a safe area for the placement of the earthly remains.

The purpose of the memorial is to identify the person who was laid to rest in a grave plot or in a columbarium niche. However, it also provides an opportunity beyond this basic function, the monument can tell a story through the design. If a picture can say a thousand words, the same is true of a monuments design.

We encourage careful consideration when choosing a monument. It is something you do not want to rush and you want to ensure that the quality of the memorial is something that will last forever. This is why we suggest granite as the material of choice for memorials. Granite is the hardest form of rock after diamond. Similar to diamonds, there are different grades of granite. Softer grades of granite, concrete products or fieldstones that require paint to be applied to the lettering or design elements should be avoided

Weber Funeral Home is an authorized monument and columbarium engraving provider for the Camrose Valleyview Cemetery and rural cemeteries. We provide granite that will stand the test of time. We have broad selection of colours, shapes, cuts and sizes. We also have a rendering process so that you can see a visual representation of what your monument will look like before it is ordered.

For appointments and inquiries please contact our office by phone or email. We will gladly meet with you at our office or we can come to you at your home.
