Your Horoscope

by Mecca Woods

ARIES (March 21 to April 19)

Don't make a minor issue into a bigger problem than necessary. Find a better perspective.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20)

If you're not feeling up to it, don't force yourself to do anything that you don't really want to do.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20)

Teaming up with others will be more productive than going it alone.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22)

Be mindful of trying to accomplish too much too soon. Pace yourself.

LEO (July 23 to Aug. 22)

Try not to overthink or overanalyze things. Live in the moment.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 to Sept. 22)

You can be extremely generous with your time and energy, but for now, just focus on yourself and the things you have to take care of.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22)

Communicating your boundaries, even if it's uncomfortable, will prevent you from taking on more than you can handle.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21)

Just because you can do something doesn't always mean you should. Practice the art of discernment.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21)

If you've been feeling restless lately, hiking, dancing, or other forms of physical activity can be good for your body and mind.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 19)

If you're in a sour mood, maybe it's best to give folks some space today. Find something that makes you laugh to cheer you up.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20 to Feb. 18)

Don't rush your decision-making, especially when it comes to important matters. Take your time.

PISCES (Feb. 19 to March 20)

Relying solely on luck to achieve your goals won't get you the outcome that you want. You'll need to put in the work, too.

FOR TODAY'S BIRTHDAY

You're meticulous and hardworking. You pay attention to the little things. You bring thoughtfulness to your work life, as well as your relationships, which a lot of people might appreciate. But sometimes you may need to be mindful of overthinking or trying to control every detail of a plan or situation. Learning how to go with the flow and trusting that all will work out can help. Making your spiritual growth a focus for the year can help you find comfort and strength in the face of change or uncertainty.

Today's Tip

MASTER STROKES

BY PHIL FRANKE WITH TOP 100 GOLF INSTRUCTORS

1-Piece Takeaway

The first move away from the ball at the start of your swing is one of the most critical movements in the swing.

The proper takeaway is what we refer to is a "1-piece takeaway."

If your shots have been erratic and you think your problem lies in your early takeaway being disjointed, try this drill. Take a club and grip way down on the shaft to where the butt end of the grip sticks into your stomach. This creates an imaginary triangle formed by your arms and a line across your shoulders. Swing the club back and forth to feel the correct connection between your body and your hands and arms. This is the right feeling of swinging rhythmically that will help you deliver the clubface squarely into the ball at impact.

By Jim McLean, owner, Jim McLean Golf School, author of the best-selling book "The Slot Swing" and the all-new "Build Your Swing" illustrated by Phil Franke'

THE MORNING BITE

Pretzels

Prep time: 40 minutes (not including dough rise time)

Cook time: 15 min

Servings: makes 4 large pretzels

Ingredients

1 1/5 (355mL) cups water

1 1/2 teaspoons dry yeast

1-2 teaspoons sugar, honey, barley syrup, or molasses, etc.

1-2 teaspoons coarse salt

4.5 (650g) cups flour

1/4 (70g) cup food-grade sodium hydroxide (lye)

5 (1.2L) cups water, for the lye bath

2 tablespoons of crunchy finishing salt

Directions

Make the dough by mixing the water, yeast, sugar, and salt with as much flour as you can stir in, then let the dough sit for 15 minutes to autolyse.

Knead in the remaining flour, which should be enough to give you a dough that is just barely sticky.

Cover the dough and let it rise overnight in the refrigerator for best flavor, or for about 2 hours on the counter. Pull the risen dough out onto a cutting board and cut it into quarters, for the four pretzels we are making. Smash each quarter piece down flat and roll it into a log.

Cover the dough logs and let them rest for about 15 minutes to let the gluten relax for easier shaping. Start preheating the oven to 450F (230C) while these rest.

Roll each log out into a long thin snake, leaving the center “belly” thicker, also don’t do this with the counter covered in flour. Pull the ends of a “snake” towards you to make an upside-down ‘U’ shape, fold the “arms” over each other twice, then back towards the “belly”. Seal the tips on the belly by pressing them down firmly onto it. Don’t do the next steps too slowly to prevent the pretzels from puffing up much after being shaped.

Using a heat-safe and chemically non-reactive vessel (such as a pyrex baking dish) create the lye bath by putting in the 5 cups of water and slowly sprinkle in the sodium hydroxide while gently mixing.

Glove your hands with latex gloves or some other kind of chemical-resistant ones and fully submerge each of the four pretzels one at a time into the lye bath for 10 seconds each. Drain each pretzel thoroughly before transferring them to baking sheets

Sprinkle the crunchy finishing salt over the the pretzels and score each pretzel’s belly with a knife for aesthetics and to allow it to expand more in the oven.

Bake pretzels until they are deep mahogany all over. This should take around 15 minutes. The sodium hydroxide should react with the dough and harmlessly evaporate in the oven.

Store or dispose the lye bath. To easily dispose of the lye bath, slowly drizzle the lye down the drain with the faucet running, to dilute it.

If at any point you get lye on your skin, wash it off in the sink promptly. It may cause minor skin irritation.
