WITH RON, WE TRUST CATHOLIC EDUCATION

Reference letters provide a personalized endorsement of a candidate's skills, character and work ethic. They help validate claims by providing crucial context to skill sets and character in ways a resume cannot. Here is what others have to say about Ron:

"Mr. Baier led the Western Catholic Reporter Board of Directors through a challenging review of the paper and 'reversioning' of the governance model. This was accompanied by a substantial reorganization of internal structures, which included changes related to financial and human resources practices and which required a great deal of tact and sensitivity. As well, he has spearheaded a major rewriting of the Bylaws, numerous policies and committee terms of reference. Mr. Baier's many years of teaching and administration experience would be a great asset to trusteeship. The community and provincial accolades he has received, including Excellence in Catholic Education Awards, are testament to his commitment to education, and especially to Catholic education. As an administrator, he is respected and admired for the way in which he 'walks the talk' by modelling authentic Catholic values for his staff and having high expectations of them."

— Becky Kallal, Former Trustee,
Edmonton Catholic Schools

Ron is a leader for our children, our teachers, our community, for the present and the future. If children could vote, they would vote for:

Ron Baier
for Separate School
Board Trustee

Your Horoscope

by Mecca Woods

ARIES (March 21 to April 19)

Today is more useful for brainstorming ideas or solutions rather than implementing them.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20)

Change is never easy, but it is possible. Take it step by step.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20)

Seek out joy whenever and wherever you can. It will help shift your mood for the better.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22)

It could be easy to become overwhelmed or overstimulated today. Find your sanctuary.

LEO (July 23 to Aug. 22)

Not everyone is going to do things the way you do them, which is OK. There's room for other perspectives.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 to Sept. 22)

Don't rush into a decision or a commitment without taking the time to evaluate if it aligns with your values and priorities.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22)

Keeping yourself nourished and hydrated could help to ease any tension that you're feeling.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21)

You need a break from people, so take one. Enjoy some alone time.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21)

Accept help when needed. Don't make things harder for yourself than necessary.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 19)

Exercising patience and understanding with yourself and others will get you the results that you want.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20 to Feb. 18)

Choose optimism over cynicism. Too, don't be afraid to open your heart.

PISCES (Feb. 19 to March 20)

If you're feeling weird vibes from someone, it's probably for a good reason. Keep your distance for now.

FOR TODAY'S BIRTHDAY

You calculate every risk that you take. Your careful planning ensures a high rate of success. During times when life throws something unexpected at you, you remain cool, calm and clever enough to keep your project or mission on track. You aim high, and you refuse to lower your standards. However, taking time to appreciate where you are and what you've created before moving on to the next big thing can help you to feel more fulfilled. This year invites you to engage more with the spiritual side of life and seek out nourishment for your soul.

BIRTHDATE OF

Naomi Osaka, professional tennis player; John Mayer, singer/musician; Tim Robbins, actor/director.

THE MORNING BITE ENVIRONMENTAL NUTRITION

Here's to jicama

Lori Zanteson

Rough-skinned and oddly shaped, jicama is rather humble looking. A peek inside reveals a creamy white flesh with the crisp and juicy texture of a pear and the mild sweetness of a water chestnut.

The folklore

Also known as yam bean or Chinese potato, jicama remains a popular ingredient in global cuisine, known for its uniqueness and versatility, and as a good source of fiber and vitamin C.

The facts

Part of the bean family of plants, jicama (Pachyrhizus erosus) is related to chickpeas, green beans, and peas. Jicama refers to the slow growing root, but above ground, it grows similar to other pole beans, vining and flowering. About 90 percent water, jicama is refreshing, hydrating, and low in calories. A one-cup serving has just 49 calories, but is an excellent source of fiber to satisfy hunger. It's an excellent source of vitamin C, with nearly 30 percent of the recommended daily value, as well as smaller amounts of iron, potassium, folate, and magnesium.

The findings

Jicama is high in fiber, including inulin, a type of soluble dietary fiber that may support digestion. A prebiotic, inulin helps stimulate the growth of beneficial bacteria in the gut microbiome (Food & Function, 2023). Emerging research has shown that adding jicama to probiotic yogurt may help lower blood sugar levels in subjects with diabetes, which may be due to the inulin in jicama (KnE Life Sciences, 2019). Research also associates jicama with heart health. One study found that jicama root juice intake may help reduce risk of developing blood clots and it lowered diastolic blood pressure, two risk factors for heart disease and stroke (BMC Complementary Medicine and Therapies, 2016).

The finer points

Available all year, jicama is in season from early winter through spring. Smaller jicamas tend to be tender and sweet, while larger jicamas may be tough and fibrous. Refrigerate unpeeled up to two weeks, or peeled and sliced in a sealed container with water up to three days.

Peel away skin with a vegetable peeler, cut into sticks or rounds for snacking, julienne to make slaws and salads, and dice into salsa. Jicama may also be stir-fried, boiled and mashed, added to soups, or enjoyed as a fun twist on French fried potatoes.

The Recycling Roundup is an opportunity for residents to responsibly dispose of a variety of materials, ensuring they are handled safely and sustainably.

Every household uses products in their home and garden that contain harmful chemicals. Any container that cautions about careful use of the product or disposal of the container should be included in the Hazardous Waste Round-Up.

Materials brought to the Roundup should be kept in their original containers. Broken or cracked containers should be placed inside leak-proof packages and labelled. Jars or cans of unidentified chemicals can also be disposed of—simply take them to the Roundup and tell a staff member that you are unsure of the contents.

The following items will be accepted, however to reduce program costs, the preferred recycling locations are:

- Paint at the Landfill or Recycling Depot
- Used Oil, Containers, and Filters at the Landfill

Our History

Dedicated Service Since 1906

BFH EST.1906

Burgar Funeral Home was started by Hiram Burgar in the back of his hardware store in 1906 - one of the first businesses in the Camrose community. After two years, his partner, Mr. Wallace withdrew from the business and his interest was taken over by Mr. Davidson, and was renamed Burgar, Davidson and company Hardware. When Davidson left the business in 1911, Burgar took over as the sole owner and in the same year Hiram and Maude (Wilson) were married. Three children were born in this union - Helen, Roderick and Doliena.

In 1917, Hiram sold his hardware store to concentrate full time on his funeral business and moved it to the present location. Rod joined his father in the business but in 1939 left to join the Canadian Air Force. After World War II ended, Rod returned to work in the funeral industry with his father. Soon after the firm name was changed to H. Burgar and Son.

When Hiram passed away in 1949, Rod and his wife Marg (Margaret) were left to manage the business. In 1959, Alver Person joined Rod Burgar and was employed at the time construction took place for the new Funeral Home.

In 1962, the sudden passing of Rod Burgar was a great shock to the community. His funeral service was one of the first to be held after the new building was dedicated, just two weeks prior to his untimely death.

Alver Person and Marg Burgar managed the business for the next few years, and in 1965, Alver purchased the business. The firm's name was then changed to Burgar Funeral Home Camrose Ltd., as it remains today.

Roger Erickson joined the firm and, in 1967 when he left to pursue other endeavors, Rod Madison began his career in the funeral service. Burgar Funeral Home was involved in the ambulance service from the very early years until 1971 when the City of Camrose assumed the responsibility. In 1979, the well-established Daysland Funeral Home was purchased by Burgar's. Bob Hanrahan, as manager, was associated with that funeral home for more than 70 years.

Reg Madison, Joe Schulte, and Steve Haugen were a part of Burgar Funeral Home and Alver's son, John, later joined the business, and served the community until 2017. Cam Parker joined Burgar Funeral Home in 1995 and served the community for 24 years. Bart Orr joined the firm in 2011 after the passing of his father introduced him to Cam and John.

Burgar Funeral Home is currently owned and operated by Bart Orr who, along with his dedicated team, are able to provide support to families in their time of need. We at Burgar Funeral Home consider it a true privilege and honor to have served and guided the families of Camrose, Daysland and area since 1906.
