"That I support, without reservation, Ron Baier as a recipient of the Excellence in Catholic Education Award is an understatement. The Lakeland Catholic School District has been enriched because of Ron's demonstrated passion for his Faith and for Catholic Education. He is a true servant leader, has a strong work ethic and leads by example. Easy apple tarts to make this fall

Tricia Manzanero Stuedeman

These apple tarts look and taste like they came from the bakery but are so easy to whip up yourself. An ultra-flaky, buttery puff pastry crust frames tart-sweet Granny Smith apple slices, while the warm flavors from the fruit soak into the pastry. To prevent your apple tarts from becoming soggy, leave any juices from the apple slices behind in the mixing bowl.

Easiest Apple Tarts (Serves 6)

Active Time: 25 minutes

Total Time: 1 hour, 15 minutes

1 frozen puff pastry sheet, thawed
1/4 cup packed light brown sugar
1/4 teaspoon ground cinnamon
1/4 teaspoon grated orange zest
1/8 teaspoon ground allspice
Pinch of salt
1 large granny smith apple, unpeeled, halved and cut into 1/8-inch slices
1 tablespoon unsalted butter, cut into 1/4-inch cubes
1 large egg, beaten
1 1/2 teaspoons apple jelly, melted
Powdered sugar for dusting (optional)

1. Position oven racks in upper and lower thirds of oven; preheat to 400 F. Line a rimmed baking sheet with parchment paper.
2. Unfold puff pastry sheet; cut in half. Place the halves 1 inch apart on the prepared baking sheet. Chill in the freezer, uncovered, for 15 minutes.
3. Stir brown sugar, cinnamon, orange zest, allspice and salt together in a large bowl. Add apple slices; toss until evenly coated.
4. Arrange the apple slices evenly over the pastry rectangles, leaving about a 1/2-inch border around the edges, overlapping slices as needed and leaving any excess juice in the bowl. Top the apples evenly with butter. Brush the pastry edges with egg.
5. Bake on the upper rack for 10 minutes. Rotate the pan 180 degrees and move to the bottom rack; bake until golden brown, puffed and the bottom is cooked through, 20 to 25 minutes, loosely covering with foil to prevent excess browning if needed. (The sugar mixture may deeply caramelize on the parchment but will not impact the tarts.)
6. Let cool on the baking sheet on a wire rack for 10 minutes. Brush the apples with melted jelly just before serving. If desired, dust with powdered sugar.

The Recycling Roundup is an opportunity for residents to responsibly dispose of a variety of materials, ensuring they are handled safely and sustainably.

Every household uses products in their home and garden that contain harmful chemicals. Any container that cautions about careful use of the product or disposal of the container should be included in the Hazardous Waste Round-Up.

Materials brought to the Roundup should be kept in their original containers. Broken or cracked containers should be placed inside leak-proof packages and labelled. Jars or cans of unidentified chemicals can also be disposed of—simply take them to the Roundup and tell a staff member that you are unsure of the contents.

The following items will be accepted, however to reduce program costs, the preferred recycling locations are:

- Paint at the Landfill or Recycling Depot
- Used Oil, Containers, and Filters at the Landfill

Understanding Grief...

Grief is a normal but sometimes overwhelming emotion. It is a response to the loss of someone or something that we have formed relationship or a bond with. There are many dimensions to this emotion that have impacts on our physical body, our cognitive functions, social interactions, and our spirituality. It is normal to find yourself feeling numb and removed from daily life, unable to carry on with regular duties while saddled with the sense of loss. Grief is both a universal and a personal experience. Individual experiences of grief vary and are influenced by the nature of the loss.

Experts advise those grieving to realize they can't control the process and to prepare for varying stages of grief. Understanding why you're suffering can help, as can talking to others and trying to resolve issues that cause significant emotional pain.

Mourning is the expression of grief, occurring as a result of someone's death. It is a personal and a collective response which can vary depending on the contexts of the relationships we have.

Ceremony is a unified ritualistic event with a purpose, usually consisting of a number of human expressions such as music, spoken word, poetry, or other artistic components. The purpose of a funeral ceremony is for those who are experiencing grief to come together in a meaningful way that allows for the expression of our grief. Every ceremony is as unique as the individual whose life we are celebrating. Some ceremonies may have rich traditions that incorporate religious or spiritual elements. Other ceremonies may be very simple and only have a few components. The important thing is that grief shared is grief diminished and ceremony's that allow for people to mourn together can greatly support our path to acceptance.
