Morning Gigue

On the Listening Tour, a prominent politician was pleased and proud that the local sandwich shop in a town he was visiting had named a sandwich after him.

Upon asking what was in it, the proprietor said: "It has some cheese, some salami, tomato, lettuce and...

...baloney, lots of baloney".

Your Horoscope

by Mecca Woods

ARIES (March 21 to April 19)

Be willing to compromise with others. You can accomplish more by working with people rather than working separately or against them.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20)

It's shaping up to be a very hectic day. Do the best you can with what you've got. Avoid putting pressure on yourself to have it all together.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20)

Taking a calculated risk is wiser than taking one that is not well-thought-out.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22)

You might be easily irritated today. Focus on stress relief and set aside as much quiet time for yourself as possible.

LEO (July 23 to Aug. 22)

Beware of rushing to judgement or making snap decisions. Seek wise counsel from a close friend or a trusted advisor.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 to Sept. 22)

You may need to revise your schedule or reassess your priorities so that you can avoid overcommitting your time, money and energy.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22)

You're in need of more fun. Make playtime a part of your day.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21)

You probably don't have as much energy as you think you do. Take time to rest.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21)

When all else fails, saying "no" is a good way to honor your boundaries.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 19)

You may need to pick your battles today, particularly concerning a group project. It may be better to just focus on handling your own business.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20 to Feb. 18)

If you're craving something fresh or exciting, turn to art and creativity.

PISCES (Feb. 19 to March 20)

Have you been nursing a grudge? If it's blocking you from moving forward, it's time to work on letting it go.

FOR TODAY'S BIRTHDAY

You put much care into your work, painstakingly attending to every detail. If you run into a problem or an obstacle, your quick yet pragmatic thinking enables you to figure out how to get around it. While you prefer logic over emotion, you may encounter many experiences in life that teach you the value of leading with your head as well as your heart. This year, your well-being is brought into focus. If the ways in which you've been caring for your mind and body are no longer working, consider incorporating new tools and techniques into your daily regimen.

THE MORNING BITE ENVIRONMENTAL NUTRITION

Sweet effects

Q: Do sweetened foods and drinks affect my metabolism?

A: Sweeteners (even sugar-free options) can have an impact on your metabolic health. Sugar-sweetened products like sodas, desserts, and many processed foods are high in calories and can lead to weight gain when consumed in excess. Over time, high sugar intake is linked to increased risks of obesity, Type 2 diabetes, heart disease, and fatty liver disease.

Non-nutritive sweeteners, like sucralose and stevia, are often used as sugar substitutes because they contain little to no calories, helping reduce sugar and calorie intake, and supporting weight management. Some studies suggest that sweeteners may alter gut bacteria, increasing cravings for sweet foods, or impacting insulin sensitivity.

These effects can vary from person to person, depending on genetics, overall diet, and lifestyle. Occasional use of sweeteners may not be harmful but relying heavily on sweetened foods can increase metabolic risk over time. The healthiest approach is to limit added sweetness altogether and focus on whole, nutrient-rich foods.

MLA Update

by Jackie Lovely, MLA Camrose Constituency

Phone: (780) 672-0000 • Email: camrose@assembly.ab.ca

Address: #104, 4870 - 51 Street

As a rural MLA, I understand how important it is for government services to be easy to use and respectful of your individual choices. That's why I want to share some news about a new option from Alberta's government.

It's called the Alberta Wallet. It's a secure digital option that lets Albertans carry certain government documents on their phone. The first document available on the wallet will be your health card.

I understand many Albertans will have reasonable concerns when they hear the words "digital ID". The new Mobile Health Card will always be optional, never mandatory. If you're happy carrying a paper version of your health card, this option remains available to you. You will always be in control of which option you choose.

The Alberta Wallet is just another way we're delivering modern and convenient services to Albertans.

The Mobile Health Card works just like your paper card. When you visit a doctor, hospital, or clinic, you show the card on your phone, and staff will see the same information that is on your paper health card. It's simply a faster and easier tool for Albertans who prefer to use their phone.

Your privacy and security are protected. The Mobile Health Card is built with strong security features and follows Alberta's strict privacy laws. No one can track when or where you use your card, and no one can access your information without your consent. The QR code on the Mobile Health Card has the same information as the paper card, plus a signature proving it was issued by Alberta's Ministry of Primary and Preventative Health Services.

This is about giving Albertans the ability to make their own choice. If you want to use the Alberta Wallet, you can. If you don't, your paper health card will continue to work just fine.

Alberta is proud to be leading Canada with this creative solution. United Conservatives will continue ensuring the services you rely on are simple, secure, and respectful of your privacy.

If you would like to learn more or access your Mobile Health Card, visit Alberta.ca/Alberta-Wallet.

MEET A PRODUCER

Whispering Cedars Ranch

Lamb Producer, Wheatland County

Ryan & Janna Greir

Janna and Ryan Greir wanted to pursue a passion for farming that started at a young age, and decided to raise sheep because of their small size and gentle nature. Whispering Cedars Ranch was established in 2012 and currently sits on 93 acres near Strathmore, Alberta. Working together to grow their flock has provided Janna and Ryan with a rewarding adventure.

AOTP: How did you get into farming?

WCR: We wanted to pursue a passion for farming that started at a young age. Although neither of us grew up on a large farm, we were exposed to agriculture. Whispering Cedars Ranch was established in 2012 out of a love for the land and a dream that as we grew our ranch, we would also grow a family. Janna holds a Bachelor of Nursing, is a certified Alberta Pasteurizer, and attends food science courses through the University of Guelph. Ryan is a Powerline Technician and took Rural Finance and Entrepreneurship at Olds College.

AOTP: What does your operation look like now?

WCR: Our farm now has over 300 Purebred Rideau Arcott sheep and continues to grow each year. We have been learning and utilizing different methods of managed grazing over the past several years on our ranch and will be using our sheep and applying these practices in 2022 to assist with vegetation management on solar installations. In addition, we are adding a sheep dairy enterprise in 2023.

AOTP: What is a favourite memory as a farmer?

WCR: Getting to involve our children on the farm creates new memories for us each day. We get the opportunity to teach them all about animal husbandry and environmental stewardship while allowing them to get their hands dirty.

AOTP: What products do you sell?

WCR: Half and whole boxed lamb, Future sheep dairy products.

AOTP: How can restaurants and consumers purchase your products?

WCR: Consumers can contact us via telephone, email, or social media. Our product can be picked up from our farm (we welcome farm tours). Both by appointment only. Restaurant owners can also contact us directly to discuss options and wholesale pricing. We have partnered with Country Lane Farms for pickup in Calgary, Chestermere, and Canmore.

Alberta on the Plate showcases the incredible bounty that is grown and produced across our beautiful province. Throughout the year, we celebrate and share the Alberta food story by introducing you to the people and businesses that grow, raise, create, and support the agri-food industry in Alberta. Every August during Alberta Local Food Week, Alberta on the Plate hosts a ten-day, province-wide dine around festival. Get more info at:
